

Beyond the SECTARIAN STRAND

The 'sectarian strand' has been a powerful lens for exploring the histories of Australian churches and Australian religion. But what of connections and collaborations as well as divisions? What of the new 'sectarianism' between faith and unbelief?

University of Divinity faculty, research students and all interested individuals are invited to this free seminar, to explore the next steps in Australian histories of religion as Michael Hogan revisits the theme of his 1987 book.

Keynote address: MICHAEL HOGAN
Author of The Sectarian Strand

Response: PROFESSOR EMERITUS SHURLEE SWAIN AM
